Haridas Contemporary is a gallery founded by Christiaan Haridas that aims to support and grow alongside Singapore's burgeoning contemporary art scene. The gallery endeavors to create a home for emerging and mid-career Singapore and Singapore-based artists, while maintaining a satellite program with regional artists.

With 17 years of experience in the Southeast Asian art market, Christiaan hopes to advocate for promising art practices that are sensitively crafted and offer interesting entry-points into the stories and concerns of contemporary life.

The gallery is committed to supporting artists throughout their artistic careers by seeding opportunities for exhibition, dialogue, and professional counsel. Haridas Contemporary will rally for exciting local practices to be recognised across regional and international platforms.

All in One, 2025, Acrylic on Canvas, 150 x 230 cm

ARTIST STATEMENT

All in One envisions a fictional hawker centre that gathers all of my favourite stalls across Singapore into a single place. As a food enthusiast who roams the island in search of the best hawker food, I often fantasise about such a convergence. The concept also nods to the origins of hawker centres as purpose-built spaces that brought street hawkers together for hygiene and convenience. In the painting, the three-storey centre with outdoor seating comes alive as patrons turn up for dinner. Iconic stalls such as Han Kee Fish Soup and Sungei Road Laksa appear within this imagined setting. This work is significant as it marks the first time in my current style that I intentionally weave recognisable, real-world elements into an otherwise fictional scene.

That One Place, 2025, Acrylic on Canvas, 150 x 120 cm

ARTIST STATEMENT

That One Place reflects the comfort and familiarity we associate with a favourite food spot. For me, this is Come Daily Fried Hokkien Prawn Mee, a stall near my home that I have frequented since childhood and often recommend to others. While the stall exists within a hawker centre in reality, it is reimagined here as a standalone roadside stall at the foot of a block of flats. Set at night, the scene shows patrons gathering around – some waiting for their food, others chatting over meals at round tables with iconic red plastic stools. The work draws on the charm and organic nature of street stalls, which no longer exist in Singapore but remain common in places such as Malaysia and Thailand. Through this imagined setting, the painting weaves memories of Singapore's past into a contemporary context.

One Man Show, 2025, Acrylic on Canvas, 150 x 120 cm

ARTIST STATEMENT

One Man Show depicts a lone hawker preparing dishes at what resembles a Chinese tze char stall, while a long line of customers waits patiently behind him. The work is inspired by hawkers who manage every aspect of their operation on their own, yet are still able to draw a crowd. Here, the hawker is presented as a quiet hero – juggling multiple roles, demonstrating resilience, and serving his community. The setting resembles a suburban slum and is constructed from visual references drawn from Singapore, Kuala Lumpur, and Hong Kong, merging different urban textures into a single imagined space.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Esmond Loh (b. 1995, Singapore) paints dramatic and ambiguous scenes based on personal experience and imagination. Merging figuration and fiction, Loh explores the theatrical and themes such as longing, nostalgia, and existentialism. Loh graduated in 2019, with a Bachelor of Fine Arts (First Class Honours) from the Slade School of Fine Art in London, United Kingdom. He won the prestigious UOB Painting of the Year Award in Singapore in 2012 at the age of 17, for his first oil painting, Just Let Me Sleep. He also won awards in the same competition in 2018 and 2020. To date, he has had five solo exhibitions, the most recent being Another Day in Paradise at Haridas Contemporary in Singapore in 2025. His works are part of private collections in Singapore, Malaysia and the UK.
